TRICARE Select benefits briefing for active duty, military retirees March 23

JONESBOROUGH – The Washington County Veterans Service Office invites active duty military, military retirees and those who are eligible to receive TRICARE Select to attend an informational meeting at 1 p.m. March 23 at the Jonesborough Visitors Center, 117 Boone Street.

Christina Courtney with Humana Military, the insurance contractor that administers TRICARE in the eastern United States for the Defense Health Agency, will be on hand to update attendees regarding recent changes to TRICARE and answer questions. This meeting is open to any area resident, not just residents of Washington County.

“This is not a meeting to sign up for healthcare benefits connected to military service, however this meeting is open to anyone wanting additional information,” explained Jerry Story, Veterans Service Officer for Washington County. “If you’re interested in seeing if you qualify for any benefits connected to military service, you can contact my office and I will assist you.”

If you cannot attend the meeting in Jonesborough, TRICARE there is one in the evening in Carter County. That meeting is at 5 p.m. at VW Post 2166, 2001 West Elk Avenue, in Elizabethton. For more information regarding this program or any service related program, please contact Story at 753-1628 or by email at jstory@washingtoncountyttn.org in Washington County or David Batchelder in Carter County at 542-1824.
